Non-Compliance

Haddington Athletic FC will take all reasonably practicable steps to deter and prevent individuals from engaging in Unacceptable Conduct.

Where incidents of Unacceptable Conduct are reported or detected, stewards will, in the first instance, be tasked to take all reasonably practical steps to properly deal with the situation and bring the matter to a satisfactory conclusion.

Where, for reasons determined by the Safety Officer, it is not possible or practicable to directly intervene in an incident all reasonable steps will be taken to detect individuals engaged in unacceptable conduct.

This may include:

- Written or verbal information from stewards or members of the public
- Any information available from post-match reports
- Any other source of information available.

Where the incident of Unacceptable Conduct is not subject of a Police enquiry, the Club secretary may, where required, carry out any further enquiry necessary to bring the matter to a conclusion. This may involve preparing reports and making recommendations to the Club Committee on any disciplinary action required to be taken against individuals and / or make recommendations to reduce and eradicate Unacceptable Conduct within the Club.

Conclusion

- The subject of Unacceptable Conduct is closely monitored and the Club seeks the co-operation and support of all supporters in its efforts to reduce and eradicate such behaviour.
- Haddington Athletic FC will not tolerate racist, sectarian, sexual or bigoted harassment or any other discriminatory behaviour, whether physical or verbal, and will work to ensure such actions are met with appropriate action in whatever context it occurs.
- The Club are committed to challenging and dismantling all forms of discrimination by developing club practice that is sensitive to all and suitable for all, reflecting fundamental quality and worth of every individual.
